Dear Tim:

I had hoped to send you my two committee reports all neatly tied up today, but I'm afraid I need an extra day or two for the Nominations Committee report. After I spoke with you day before yesterday, I began calling our list of prospects. Both of our potential vice-presidential candidates wanted the weekend to think it over, and I thought we could live with that. Then I began calling the candidates for treasurer and was regretfully turned down by the first two. My next call produced another plea for time to think it over for a day, and finally I hit paydirt with a "yes" from Sue Burch. I should be able to fax you the completed report on Monday.

Here's my very brief report for the Special Committee on Cooperative Efforts. If ever a committee was misnamed, this was it. Beth Schneider is no doubt still beating the bushes in St. Louis for a body or bodies to take on local arrangements. She promised to let me know as soon as she succeeded.

I'm sending you paper copies of these as well, but in case you need to get started, I guess this is better than nothing. You'll hear from me in a few days.

Enjoy the weekend!

Carol

Dear Tim:

At last! The slate is in place! In addition to the Nominating Committee report, I thought I had better send you a revised, less optimistic version of the report of the Committee on Cooperative Efforts. If you've already duplicated the earlier one, that's fine. I can bring everyone up to date at the board meeting next week.

See you in Tuscaloosa! Have a safe trip.

Carol

Dear Judy:

I hope that you and other members of the AALL Headquarters staff are looking forward to an exciting and productive Annual Meeting in New Orleans.

I have some good and bad news to report. Peggy Martin, who was elected Vice-President/President-Elect of the Southeastern Chapter, will be leaving the Southeastern region near the end of May. Peggy coordinated a wonderful program in Tuscaloosa for our Annual Meeting and we will be sorry to see her leave our region. We are happy, however, that the SEAALL Nominating Committee presented the name of Mary F. Cross as a candidate to fill the unexpired portion of Peggy's term and to assume the Presidency of SEAALL at the Annual Meeting in July. Although Mary has not been officially elected yet, she is unopposed in the special election. The election will occur during the early portion of May, 1991. I would appreciate, therefore, your placing Mary's name and address in your database as the new Vice-President/President-Elect of SEAALL; she will become President at our business meeting in New Orleans.

Mary's address follows:

Enclosed is the ballot for the election of SEAALL officers. Article III, sec. 2 of the Bylaws specifies that elections are to be held by mail ballot in May of each year. For the year 1991/92 the two positions to be filled are Vice President/President-Elect and Treasurer. In accordance with the Articles of Incorporation, art. SOUTHEASTERN CHAPTER OF AALL

1990-91 Report

NOMINATIONS COMMITTEE

This year's Nominations Committee consists of Philip Berwick, George Mason University School of Law; Claire Engel, Kilpatrick & Cody in Atlanta; Terri Saye, University of North Carolina Law Library; and Carol Billings, Chair, Law Library of Louisiana.

Shortly before the 1991 slate was to be presented, President Tim Coggins notified the committee chair that because our president-elect, Peggy Martin, would be moving to Colorado in May, someone would need to be chosen to complete her unexpired term and to assume the presidency in July. Upon careful examination of the Articles of Incorporation and consultation with several past presidents and the nominations chair, President Coggins concluded that rather than conduct a special election for the unexpired vice-presidency, it would be appropriate to elect Peggy Martin's replacement during the regular election in early May.

Alva Stone, who was elected to a two-year term last May will continue for another year in the office of secretary.

The slate to be presented to the SEAALL membership in the May election is as follows:

To fill the unexpired term of the vice-president/president-elect and to succeed to the presidency in July:

MARY CROSS, Stearns Weaver Miller Weissler Alhadeff & Sitterson,
Miami, Florida

For vice-president/president-elect (to assume office in July):

WILLIAM J. BEINTEMA, Director of the Law Library, University of Tennessee, Knoxville, Tennessee

EDMUND P. EDMONDS, Law Librarian, Loyola University Law School
Library, New Orleans, Louisiana

For treasurer (to assume office in July):

SUE BURCH, Circulation Reference Librarian, University of Kentucky Law Library, Lexington, Kentucky

HILARY BURG, Odip Feldman & Pittleman, Fairfax, Virginia

The Nominations Committee shall supply all candidates with biographical data forms to be used in preparing the ballot and shall present the completed ballot to the secretary no later than mid-April so that the election may be conducted in early May.

Carol D. Billings
